Fashion Sales and Analytics Internship

We are offering an internship position in our Copenhagen showroom. You will join and support our sales team and will be introduced to the commercial planning and execution of selling and distributing a brand.

You will assist in everyday tasks such as showroom and back-office maintenance, typing and analysing orders, preparing for sales trips, and taking part in sales meetings with clients as well as designers.

The internship also includes a trip to Paris to support the sales showroom during Paris Fashion Week.

To gain a comprehensive understanding of the full fashion business cycle, the internship is a full time position for 4-6 months. Preferred periods for the upcoming season are June 1 to December 1, 2025, or August 1 to January 31, 2026.

Employment opportunities may be available upon completion of the internship.

Who We're Looking For:

- Detail-oriented with strong organisational skills
- Tech-savvy, with proficiency in Microsoft Excel
- Excellent English communication skills (verbal and written)
- Self-motivated and eager to learn
- Problem solver with a positive approach to challenges

We review applications on a rolling basis, so we encourage you to apply early rather than waiting for the deadline.
